

Yes, I want to make a gift to the Center for Spectrum Services Endowment Fund

It may be many, many years before a “cure” for autism is found. Until a cure is found, and during the decades ahead, families must rely on the treatment of autism and alleviating the effects it has on these special children. It is for this reason that we’ve established the Center for Spectrum Services Endowment Fund, which has been contracted to the esteemed Community Foundations of the Hudson Valley.

Our goal is sustainable growth, so that we’re ready to pivot when new discoveries in autism are made, or new teaching methods discovered. In order to grow our programming over the decades ahead, and to quickly maneuver the school to handle the many changes that are sure to come, we’ll need your help to secure that future, by donating to the Center for Spectrum Services Endowment Fund. Future children with autism are counting on you.
